

BEST PRACTICES (2021-2022)

I. Title - Jagratha 2022

1. Objectives of Practice–

1. Raise awareness among student teachers about the prevailing societal conditions, requirements of rural women and children.
2. Foster a sense of societal duty and obligation within student teachers.
3. Equip student teachers with the skills to conduct lessons on subjects of social significance

2. The Context

As situated within a semi-urban locality, the college predominantly admits students hailing from rural origins and middle-income families. The institution is firmly committed to the improvement of the well-being of rural women and children, a commitment evident in its motto.

3. The Practice

A joint initiative with Archana Women Centre, Ettumanoor for women empowerment. Webinars are conducted on Saturdays for a year.

4. Evidence of Success

- Establishes a connection with the recipient communities
- Directly exposes women and students to societal issues
- Supports underprivileged women, students, and their families
- Utilizes the energy of the youth to contribute to the country's progress

The feedback received from the NGO and participants proves the success of the venture

5. Problems Encountered and Resources Required

Network issues – Dearth of resource persons
