

ST. THOMAS COLLEGE OF TEACHER EDUCATION, PALA
CURRICULUM PLANNING –FEEDBACK (TEACHING PRACTICE SCHOOLS)
(B.Ed.) SEMESTER III

Name of the school:		Academic year:
Name and Designation of the Teacher:
Sl. No.	Statements	Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
1.	The curriculum is modified to help the trainee to adapt with the new challenges in the field education.
2.	Curriculum gives more importance to professional preparation of the future teachers.
3.	Technologically competent teachers are being made every year.
4.	Curriculum ensures the importance of inclusive education and gender neutrality.
5.	Life skills are clearly known to the trainees and they transmit it to the learners.
6.	Children's creativity and aesthetic skills are nurtured and improved by the trainees .
7.	As the curriculum emphasises sustainable development and address environmental issues , trainees are well equipped enough to give those values to students.
8.	ICT enabled learning and e-learning obviously increase the interest of learners.
9.	Teacher Trainees approaches student issues very gently that the students find it more comfortable to share with them.
10.	Curriculum uphold the cultural, social , political values and thoughts that the trainees are confident enough to handle all tasks efficiently among the learners.				