ACADEMIC YEAR 2021-2023

Emporio is a word taken from the Greek language meaning commerce was the name of our magazine which was published by the commerce education department under the guidance of our mentor Mrs. Pushpa George. This magazine is a reflection of the students talents. It also enhances the importance of commerce in today's world. Thus you could say it as a combination of cooperation, coordination and enthusiasm among the student teachers of commerce education department. This magazine was officially released by Principal Dr. TC. Thankachan on January 19. This was indeed a very proud moment for us. By the grace of God and the help of our mentor we were able to do our best.

On behalf of the 75 th independence day celebration, our College too actively participated in the successful victory of our freedom fighters. As a part of it the commerce education department of STCTE, was assigned with the poster making showcasing the success, struggles undergone by our freedom fighters. This was our way of showing gratitude to our freedom fighters who have sacrificed their lives for the freedom that we people enjoy now

The Commerce Club of St. Thomas College of Teacher Education, Pala, initiated the publication of a magazine titled "Click to Order" under the teacher in charge Joffy J Njavallil. The magazine was launched by our Principal Prof. Dr. Sr .Beenamma Mathew on 12th Nov 2022. This magazine serves as a platform for students to showcase their talents, share insights on various e-commerce-related topics, and stay updated on the latest trends in the field of e-commerce.

St. Thomas college of teacher Education pala organised an exhibition on 22 Nov 2022. As part of this exhibition Students of 1st year Commerce Education participated enthusiastically by bringing ancestral items and preparing detailed charts on Trivandrum. The exhibition aimed to showcase the rich cultural heritage and historical artifacts brought by the students from their homes. Additionally, the event sought to highlight the beauty and significance of different places in Kerala through creative and informative displays. The teacher-in-charge, Joffy J Njavallil has been pivotal in organizing and guiding us, and ensuring its success and impact.

In an effort to enhance communication and engagement among students, our Commerce Batch of 2022-24 organized and presented a comprehensive Commerce Notice Board. This initiative aimed to provide a centralized platform for sharing information relevant to the field of commerce, including academic resources, industry updates, events, and student achievements. The positive feedback from both students and faculty highlights the board's role in fostering a more connected and informed community. This was indeed a proud moment for us.

ACADEMIC YEAR 2024-2026

The activities of the Commerce Club, named "Commerce Crew," for the academic year 2023-24 were inaugurated by the respected principal of St. Thomas College for Teacher Education, Pala, Dr. Sr. Beenamma Mathew, who also published the magazine 'Bullseye.' The teacher in charge, Mr. Joffy J. Njavallil, and all club members were present. The magazine was the result of a team effort under the leadership of Editor Sr. Anu Varghese and the guidance of the teacher in charge, Mr. Joffy J. Njavallil. The process of making the magazine was very well planned and organized. As the name of the magazine, Bullseye, indicates, it is aimed at the target and has successfully reached it.

As part of the Commerce Club activities, we conducted a debate on E-banking in our commerce class in the presence of the Teacher-in-Charge, Mr. Joffy J. Njavallil. Rini Joseph was the selected moderator. Team A, presenting the merits of E-banking, consisted of Krishnendu T.K., Sr. Anu Varghese, and Ashna Varkey. Team B comprised Anjali Rameshan, Annmariya Thomas, Shemi Paul, and Sissy Babu.

ACADEMIC YEAR 2024-2026

The Fayol's Club, a commerce education club, officially commenced its activities on 17th October 2024. The club marked this occasion by presenting and releasing a unique diagrammatic summary of key commerce topics, titled "Comgrammatic Folio." This resource was developed under the supervision of the teacher in charge, Dr. Prasoon C.P, and was formally released by the principal, Prof. (Dr.) Sr. Beenamma Mathew. The "Comgrammatic Folio" was created using the app VUE (Visual Understanding Environment), known for its effectiveness in creating visual representations. The folio aims to simplify complex commerce topics, making them accessible and easy to understand for students across various disciplines.

Along side the release of Comgrammatic Folio on 17th October 2024 a quiz programme named Coquiz was also conducted by Fayol's Club. The quiz was divided into five exciting rounds. The first round was Co spelling. Contestants were asked to spell the names of various brands correctly. The next round was Co Logo. In this round, teams had to identify the logos of different brands displayed on the screen. The third round was named Currency. Contestants were shown Indian rupee notes and had to answer the images printed on them. Co Caption was the fourth round. Teams were provided with company taglines and asked to identify the respective companies. The final round was named Identify the Person. The round involved identifying prominent Indian business persons displayed on the screen.

The winner of coquiz was English Education and runner's up was Mathematics Education.

The programme was a great success, combining learning with a fun and competitive spirit. It left participants and the audience with a deeper understanding of various aspects making it an unforgettable experience for all.
