1. OUR PATRON SAINT

Thomas, also known by his Greek name Didymos, started his life as Jewish fisherman on the shores of Lake Galilee in Palestine, in the beginning of the Christian era. He became one of the twelve disciples of Jesus Christ, known as the Apostles. He died at Mylapore, near Chennai in AD 72. He is revered as a saint by most Christian denominations.

The memory of St. Thomas holds special meaning to the sponsors of the St. Thomas College of Teacher Education, the community of the Catholic Eparchy of Palai. As part of the larger body of St. Thomas Christians, they respect St. Thomas for bringing the Christian faith to their ancestors. The St. Thomas Christians of Kerala are one of the only two communities in the worldwho trace the apostolic origins of their faith to St. Thomas.

The biblical verses where St. Thomas says, "Let us also goand die with Him" (John 11: 16) and "Lord, we do not know where you are going. Then how will we know the way?" (John 14:5) tell us a lot about St. Thomas – his total fearlessness in walking the path of his Master and his utter truthfulness in opening his heart to Him. This propelled him to travel to the distant shores of our country to share the truth which he witnessed.

These qualities of its heavenly patron inspire the College to produce teachers who are guides to generations and beacons of light to the society.

2. OUR MOTTO AND COAT OF ARMS

Our motto 'LUX AD ILLUMINANDUM' means 'LIGHT TO ENLIGHTEN'. The students are expected to become lights to illumine the world and to dispel all sorts of darkness around us.

The 'coat of arms' also embodies the spirit of our motto. The coat of arms is in the shape of a shield which is divided into four quarters, each depicting the development of different aspects of the students' personality.

The lighted lamp symbolises the moral development, the fundamental requisite of any individual they are expected to become lights of the universe and remove the darkness around us.

The spear and T- square represent our heavenly patron, St. Thomas, the disciple of Jesus Christ who came to this part of the world to spread the word of God. This also signifies the enhancement of spiritual values of our students.

The open book depicts acquisition of knowledge and wisdom and thus stands for the intellectual growth of the students.

The hills, coconut palm, river, etc. portray distinctive geographical characteristics of our locale. They also represent the physical development of the students.

The dawn, the rising sun imply the conquest of light over darkness.

17. PRAYER SONG

Lead, Kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom, Lead Thou me on! The night is dark and I am far from home, Lead Thou me on.

Keep Thou my feet; I do not ask to see

The distant scene; one step enough for me.

I was not ever thus, nor prayed that Thou Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path, but now
Lead Thou me on;

I loved the garish day; and spite of fears, Pride ruled my will; remember not past years. So long Thy power hath blessed me, sure it still Will lead me on, O'er moor and fen, O'er crag and torrent, till The night is gone;

And with the morn those angel faces smile, Which I have loved long since, and lost awhile. (Cardinal Newman)
