15 march 2024 , Arts Day celebrations

The annual Arts Day celebration at St. Thomas College of Teacher Education, Pala was a resounding success, showcasing the diverse talents and creative expressions of our students. The event featured a dazzling array of performances, including captivating dance routines, melodious vocal solos and group renditions, and mesmerizing instrumental performances. Students also showcased their artistic prowess through a vibrant art exhibition featuring paintings, sculptures, and photography. The atmosphere was electric with excitement as students eagerly shared their artistic endeavors with their peers, teachers, and parents. The Arts Day celebration served as a valuable platform for students to explore their artistic passions, build confidence, and foster a deep appreciation for the arts.
