FACULTY EXCHANGE PROGRAMME

"PROFESSIONALIZATION OF TEACHING IN INDIA AND NIGERIA"

International Faculty Exchange Programme

A webinar titled "Professionalization of Teaching in India and Nigeria" was held on May 29, 2021, from 2:30 PM to 3:30 PM. Organized by St. Thomas College of Teacher Education, Pala. The program brought together Dr. T.C. Thankachan, Principal of the college, and Dr. Aliyu Yaya Aliyu from the Department of Curriculum and Instructional Technology at the Federal College of Education in Nigeria, as resource persons.

All of the college's teaching faculty participated enthusiastically in the discussion and learned a great deal from the renowned experts. The webinar provided a valuable comparative perspective on how India and Nigeria are approaching the professionalization of teaching.

International Faculty Exchange Programme

On May 27th, 2021, St. Thomas College of Teacher Education Pala convened a webinar entitled "Reflection on 21st Century Education and Teachers in India and Nigeria". Esteemed scholars, Dr. T.C. Thankachan, Principal of St. Thomas College, and Dr. Patrick Eke Eya, Deputy Vice-Chancellor Academic of the National Open University of Nigeria, served as the program's Resource Persons. The hour-long session (12.00 p.m. – 1.00 p.m.) provided a forum for the exploration of the challenges and opportunities confronting educators in both India and Nigeria.

The program offered a unique chance for all faculty members and teacher education students to gain a comparative perspective on educational practices in India and Nigeria. The exchange of ideas between the Resource Persons and the audience centered on effective pedagogical methodologies, curriculum development strategies, and the paramount importance of fostering critical thinking and fostering a spirit of innovation within the student body. The program enriched the understanding of 21st century education for all participants.
