Pearl Annie Sen is an academically bright student and a person with high aspirations and expectations. As part of mentoring, she shared the family details, education and social status of the parents and siblings. I could identify her strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and challenges.

18/11/2023

She prepared a good bio-data for future purpose. I could give her some good suggestions. Also directed her to clear the eligibility tests for teaching and also to do some additional online classes.

23/10/2023

Discussed the results of the examination and appreciated her. She revealed her interest to do Ph.D. I could give her to join in our research programme.

10/3/2025

She cleared eligibility tests. Introduced some schools in which she can apply and select the internship project. Principals (in nearby)

Vandya is an academically bright student and showed interest in co-curricular activities and arts; like dance, music and painting items. Her enthusiasm and commitment is well appreciated. In the first mentoring meeting, she revealed about her family members, financial status and ambitions. I could give some valuable suggestions and advice.

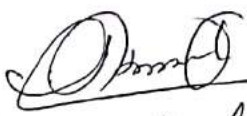

18/11/2023

Made a detailed discussion on the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and challenges. Advised her about the importance of teacher eligibility tests. The mentor detailed about the internship practices and informed about preparations on the same.

23/01/2023

Discussed about the systems of school education in Kerala and other states. Also gave an academic counselling on higher studies including research. The interactions were so cordial and could give her a good orientation towards future teaching.

Meriy Veronica Sam is an academically bright student coming from 20 kms away from Pala. She completed her M. Com from a reputed institution and she would like to become a higher secondary school teacher. I could give some directions on becoming a good teacher at the higher education level.

18/01/2023

Meriy discussed and revealed about her strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and challenges. When I went through her bio-data, I could realize that she can become a good teacher at school and higher levels. She is financially sound and has a sense of her future career.

10/3/2023

Other than the regular discussion and sharing Meriy shared about her inhibitions and doubts she faced at the previous education level. As a result of continuous mentoring and interaction she got a very good base at the teacher education level.

treated about her physical condition and under medications. Her manners, way of life interest in learning is commendable.

18/11/2023

She shared about the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and challenges. As she was started medications for reducing the creatinine level she could not concentrate on the studies. But she managed well, and I could support her in all dimensions.

10/3/2023

Because of the kidney disease, the doctors directed her to transplant kidney with out fail. Finally she was one of the good students and she discontinued.

The college started fund collection for Kidney transplant, and we collected Rs. 1 Lakh for her treatment, but later she ~~discontinued~~ ^{dismitted}.
